

Spotify Statistics

|                 |                      |
|-----------------|----------------------|
| Target release  | 10 August 2022       |
| Epic            | Music Statistic Page |
| Document status | DRAFT                |
| Document owner  | @zaki                |
| Designer        | @Basuki              |
| Tech lead       | @Emma                |
| QA              | @Sterling            |

Objective

Provides users with a new feature in the form of statistics on the music they listen to and integrated within the app.

Success metrics

| Goal                 | Metric                                                                                                                                                |
|----------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Music Statistic Page | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Features can be accessed on mobile platforms</li><li>Users can share their statistics to social media</li></ul> |

Milestones

Requirements

| Requirement      | User Story                                                            | Importance | Jira Issue | User Acceptance Criteria                                                                                      |
|------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Statistics Pages | as a user I want to see the statistics of the music I'm listening to  | HIGH       | link       | User can see their music statistic from what they have heard before. e.g top 10 songs, top 10 musicians, etc. |
| Statistics Pages | as a user I want to share my statistics of the music I'm listening to | HIGH       | link       | User can share their statistic to social media                                                                |

User interaction and design

 Post launched milestone

- 40% increase in app usage rate
- PC platforms in 2 months
- Update version through users feedback